They write from Bradford in Wiltshire, that on Friday last a very melancholy Accident happen'd there to Mr. Saunders, a young Lad, (and Brother to Mr. Thomas Saunders an eminent Clothier of that Town) who was out a shooting small Birds, and by handing the Gun over a Hedge with the Butt-end foremost, by some Accident it fir'd, and shot him thro' the Head, so that his Brains came out, and he died the same Night. 'Tis hop'd the Frequency of these Accidents will be a proper Warning for Masters of Families not to trust such dangerous Weapons in the Hands of those who are so ill qualified to use them.

Last Tuesday by Order of the Hon. Thomas Hales, Esq; Lieutenant of Dover Castle was held a Court of Loss-manage for the Cinque Ports, when Capt. Kindness, an old experienced Pilot of Dover, was elected Matter of the Trinity House of the said Cinque Ports, and was sworn in accordingly, to the general Satisfaction of the Pilots of the said Society.

A few Days ago dy'd the Rev. Mr. Hitch, Rector of Boswell in Yorkshire, and Chaplain to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and also to General Churchill's Regiment of Dragoons.

We hear from Saffron-Walden in Essex, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Suffolk has this Christmas given away to the Poor of the Six nearest Parishes to where he lives, Six very good Stears and six hundred Three-penny Loaves, which Gift his Lordship has continued annually ever since his Marriage.

By Letters from Newcastle upon Tyne we are inform'd, that on Friday last, being New Year's-day, the Charity annually given by Walter Blacket, Esq; was distributed to Eight hundred poor People, viz. a Piece of Beef, a Loaf, and Six-pence to each; and several other poor People had Money given them afterwards.

Last Week a Dispensation pass'd the Great Seal to enable the Rev. John Billingsley, M.A. a Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Lord Montford, to hold the Rectory of Newington in the County of Oxford, and in the peculiar Jurisdiction of Canterbury, together with the Rectory of Peely in the County of Berks and Diocese of Sarum.

Last Sunday Night died after a tedious Indisposition, at her House in King-street Westminster, Mrs. Drew Relict of Mr. Humphrey Drew an eminent Undertaker.

Admiralty Office, January 2, 1741.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having ordered the Petty Officers and Foremastmen of his Majesty's Ship the Sunderland to be removed into the Luke at Spithead; and the Petty Officers and Foremastmen of the Colchester to be removed into the Cambridge, at the same Place; and the Leave of Absence which has been given to the Colchester's Men expiring on the 6th Instant, and that to the Sunderland's Men on the 9th Instant, it is their Lordships Directions, that the said Petty Officers and Foremastmen do immediately on the Expiration of their Leave, repair to Spithead on board the Ships they are ordered to be removed into, on pain not only of losing their Wages, but of being apprehended, and tried as Deserters.

If the said Men apply to the Navy Board, they will be allowed Conduct Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding to Portsmouth; and they will be paid their Wages for the Sunderland and Colchester, and also Two Months Wages Advance, before the Ships they will serve in proceed to Sea.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, December 30. 1741.

HIS Majesty's Ship the Leopard, which is fitting out for the Sea, being now at Longreach, it is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Men turned over into that Ship from the Hampton-Court and Lark do immediately repair on board to their Duty, on pain of the Loss of their Wages, and also of being apprehended and tried at a Court Martial as Deserters.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty Office, December 31. 1741.

HIS Majesty's Ship the Advice, which is fitting out for the Sea, being got to the Nose, it is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that all the Seamen turned over into the said Ship from the Windsor, Alborough, and Eleanor Fireship, do immediately repair on board to their Duty, on pain of Loss of their Wages, and being taken up and tried as Deserters. If the said Men apply to the Regulating Captains at their Office in Mark Lane, they will send them in Tenders down to their Ship, with their Chests and Bedding.

Tho. Corbett.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Sorts of who arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, ever so many Years standing, and that without any terrible cution or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable is generally advised, although always found rather to increase confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the 16 much tried and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trou-

Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, does cure the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, as Scurvick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experiand as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Scurvy, Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, swellof the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, various Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symtoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed un-the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Diseases.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and sh Windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whereas ceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no other other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, in that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and pearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indige-and flammant Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and com-prevents Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen enlive the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Per-pleasantly Lightness, Brisk and Vigorous so admiration, which good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to recover found and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these famous and pleasant mical Drops have to universally gain'd among Persons of Rank for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scur-tick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, &c. under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful fore not to be deceiv'd, but be sure to have the Right, which the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the dewman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the
